

REPORT ON THE LAW OF CHARITIES BY THE ONTARIO LAW REFORM COMMISSION

One of the most recent and exhaustive studies on the law of charity was carried out by the Ontario Law reform Commission. Days after the Report was released, the Commission had reached the end of its term. The Report was published on the Internet and a few hard copies are located in Law Faculties in Canada. About a year later, the Commission's web site was discontinued, making access to the Report very difficult.

The Program on Nonprofit Corporations, Queensland University of Technology was able to secure the agreement of the Ontario Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations to publish the material at no charge provided the source of the material was acknowledged.

QUT express its thanks to the Ontario Government for permitting the publication of this Report.

© Queen's Printer for Ontario, 1989. Reproduced with permission.